

Fact Sheet

Overview

The Humanitarian Aid Foundation (HAF) is a non-profit tax-exempt organization dedicated to fortifying the lives of people who have suffered from atrocities; including crimes against humanity and natural disasters.

Incorporated in 2002, the HAF is a direct result of the tireless efforts of distinguished humanitarian and business leaders to establish an initiative to provide direct assistance to victims of natural and manmade catastrophes.

Board of Trustees

- Ambassador Stuart E. Eizenstat, Chair of the Board
- Mark Talisman, Vice Chair of the Board
- Ambassador Randolph Marshall Bell, Secretary
- Ambassador J.D. Bindenagel, Treasurer
- Ambassador L. Craig Johnstone, Trustee
- Dan H. McCormick, Trustee
- Joshua Opperer, Trustee

Program of Work

HAF's program of work focuses on providing much needed assistance to the poorest Holocaust survivors in the United States. These survivors, now elderly and frail, urgently need increased services to help them live their last years with comfort and dignity. Critical services for the survivors include:

- Comprehensive home and health care assistance
- Emergency assistance
- Community outreach
- Psychological support services

HAF works in partnership with quality service agencies across the country to provide these necessary services to survivors most in need.
